Secretary (DARE) and Director General (ICAR) inaugurates the Main Gate of ICAR-NIBSM

15 March 2024, Raipur

Dr. Himanshu Pathak, Secretary (DARE) and Director General (ICAR), visited the ICAR-National Institute of Biotic Stress Management today for the inauguration of the main gate and foundation stone of the shopping complex of ICAR-NIBSM, Raipur (Chhattisgarh).

He interacted with the scientists and students and urged the young scientists to gear up their knowledge and to work hard to achieve excellence in research. He praised the institute's efforts in research and education.

Dr. Pathak said that ICAR has the strength of quality research and education, and we have to maintain this with good faculty and scientists. He emphasized student research as one of the most important components of quality research.

Earlier, Dr. P. K. Ghosh, Director, ICAR-NIBSM, briefed about the achievements of the institute and its future plans.

Dr. Pankaj Sharma, Joint Director, coordinated the program and interaction meeting.

All the Joint Director, Scientists, Administrative staff, Young Professionals and UG, PG Students of ICAR-NIBSM participated in the program. Vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Mamta Choudhary, Principal Scientist.

